

Mayor's Arts Awards announced

HIGHLIGHTS

Recipients of the annual Bellingham Mayor's Arts Awards will be honored April 27 at Mount Baker Theatre's Walton Theatre.

Watch: "The World Dance Project" at Carl Cozier Elementary

BY MARGARET BIKMAN

mbikman@bhamherald.com

Bellingham Mayor Kelli Linville recently announced the recipients of the 37th annual Mayor's Arts Awards. A reception and awards ceremony honoring the winners will be 5:30 p.m. April 27 at Mount Baker Theatre's Walton Theatre, 104 N. Commercial St.

The award recognizes artists, advocates, organizations, and performances that significantly contribute to the arts in Bellingham, chosen from nominations submitted by community members.

The awards will be presented to AnMorgan Curry; Bellingham Music Club; Bellingham Repertory Dance's "Wake;" Bellingham Threshold Singers; Christopher Key; Luther Allen and Judy Kleinberg; Jaz Okura-Youtsey; Judith Owens-Lancaster; Julia Clifford for "Children of the Civil Rights;" and Kuntz & Company and Carl Cozier Elementary School for "The World Dance Project."